

Fathers

Imma be blunt
Parents can suck

Fathers, the “protectors”
Tbh they can be the biggest haters

Rules, rules, rules
They’re not that cool

Degrading, downplaying, betraying
Why you acting like you ain’t the villain

This right here is personal rq
You came after my moms and that shit’s sick

Said I was “raised to be a victim”
You weren’t there so why you talking shit son

The shit hurt like nothing else you done
These words showed who you really are in the end

Not saying all dads are like mine
Not glorified assholes who try to shine

Some are strong, kind, and true
To these fathers I say thank you

Support, love, and honesty is all I ask
For those who aren’t up for the task

Lemme say this again one more time
For the ones in the back who feel like dying

Fathers can suck, yes it's true
Hopefully yours has love for you
